

This month we are finishing our reading through the “minor prophets.” If you’ve been following along with the last few months, you’ve probably noticed that though there are many unifying themes throughout these prophets, each has their own unique message to Israel, Judah, and to the world. As you finish these books this month, see how God unpacks His promise to both judge all who refuse to trust in Him and save all those who will in the coming “day of the Lord,” which was fulfilled in Jesus Christ and will be finalized once and for all when Jesus comes back to save His people and punish those who stand against Him (see Revelation 19 and 20). As you read, be careful to see how He makes promises that He Himself will bring back His people to Himself, though they have run from Him in disobedience (for example, read Zechariah 12:10!). This, too, is the only hope of the Christian; that amidst all of our sin and rebellion against a God who punishes sinners, He will remember His covenant and grant us repentance.

August 2021: HS

D6 is designed to offer guided time the Bible for 6 days a week. The goal is to develop a habit of learning from God's Word daily. If you miss a day, don't give up. Just jump back in the next day.

Deuteronomy 6:6-9

These commandments that I give you today are to be on your hearts. Impress them on your children. Talk about them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up. Tie them as symbols on your hands and bind them on your foreheads. Write them on the door frames of your houses and on your gates.
