

D6: December 2021: Middle School

As we look forward to Christmas at the end of this month, we are going to learn about the person of Jesus. Rather than just looking at His birth, we will be looking at His birth, ministry, death, resurrection, and ascension. The Gospels are what people call the books of Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John. These books explain the life, death and resurrection of Jesus. We will be reading through two of the four Gospels: Matthew and John. We are doing this because Matthew and John explain the story of Jesus in two very different ways. And this will help us to understand the life of Jesus better. As you go through your reading each day, answer a few of these questions in your journals: What is one new thing you learned today? What is one way you can apply what you learned? What part of Jesus' life was this passage talking about? Did any part of the reading point towards Jesus dying on the cross for our sins?

D6 is...

Deuteronomy 6:6-9

⁶These commandments that I give you today are to be on your hearts. ⁷Impress them on your children. Talk about them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up. ⁸Tie them as symbols on your hands and bind them on your foreheads. ⁹Write them on the door frames of your houses and on your gates.
