The book of Joshua reminds us that the Christian life is a life of warfare, just as Paul writes in Ephesians 6. This book also reminds us that God is the God who helps us as we fight in the battle for holiness. God promised to give the land to the people, and He also called them to live by faith in His promises as they waged war against the enemies of God. This is the same situation that we find ourselves in every day! For those who are in Jesus Christ by faith alone, God promises to work in them to transform them from the inside out as they fight sin. And yet, we must work out our salvation with fear and trembling because this is true (Phil. 2:12-13). When the story pivots over to Judges, we see what happens when a people live without God as their King: chaos ensues. When God is not the king, “everyone does what is right in their own eyes.” Our hearts lead us astray when we do not submit them to Jesus Christ, and even though God continues to be kind to His people to raise up judges to protect them, the people continue to rebel against them.

D6 is designed to offer guided time the Bible for 6 days a week. The goal is to develop a habit of learning from God's Word daily. If you miss a day, don't give up. Just jump back in the next day.

Deuteronomy 6:6-9

These commandments that I give you today are to be on your hearts. Impress them on your children. Talk about them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up. Tie them as symbols on your hands and bind them on your foreheads. Write them on the door frames of your houses and on your gates.
