

D6: November 2024: Middle School

Because we are still spending so much time in the Old Testament for our Sunday teachings in Middle School, we will look at a book in the New Testament. This month's reading is extra exciting because we get to start the processes of looking forward to the Christmas season! We will be reading the gospel of John. In this book, John records the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus.

As you go through the reading each day write down your answer to these questions: What did this passage teach you about God? What did it teach you about yourself? How did you see the Gospel in this passage? Were there any commands given for how you should live? What is something new you learned through this passage?

D6 is...

Deuteronomy 6:6-9

<sup>6</sup>These commandments that I give you today are to be on your hearts. <sup>7</sup>Impress them on your children. Talk about them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up. <sup>8</sup>Tie them as symbols on your hands and bind them on your foreheads. <sup>9</sup>Write them on the door frames of your houses and on your gates.
