

Introduction

Jesus asks a powerful question of His disciples; "But who do you say that I am?" In the Gospels, we get the answer to this question; we get to know Jesus as He reveals Himself to us. As we dig into the Gospels, we get to walk away with an answer to the question of who Jesus is - along with Peter, we can declare "You are the Christ, the Son of the Living God" (Matthew 16:15).

This Fall, we will be reading through the Gospels twice, learning about the life and ministry of Jesus here on earth. Sometimes the Gospel stories can feel very familiar to us, but as we read, we want to slow down and ponder who Jesus is, what He did, and who we are called to be as His followers. Our hope is that by spending time in the same books, you'll be able to gain a deeper understanding of who Jesus is and the way He lived.

While You Read

For November/December, we will be reading through all four Gospels again. Choose a different translation than the one that you read for September/October (such as EXV, NLT, NIV, NASB). You can find different translations through the Bible app.

As you read, make a list of who we are as followers of Christ - what is true of us, what are we called to do, etc. Each day as you read, add to this list by writing down anything you learn about us as believers in these chapters- look for the ways Jesus describes those who follow Him and look at the active verbs. Keep the question that Jesus asked His disciples in the back of your mind as you read- "But who do you say I am?"

At the end of the month, read back over your list, then share with your parent, small group leader, or another trusted adult, what was something that stood out to you about who Jesus is in the Gospels.
